Jean Monnet: Defining European Union studies

"European Union studies comprises the study of Europe in its entirety, with a particular emphasis on the EU dimension, from an internal but also from a global perspective"

Enhancing awareness of the European Union:

- European citizenship and values
- Role of the EU in a globalised world
- Facilitating future engagement as well as people-to-people dialogue.
- Vector of public diplomacy in third countries, promoting EU values and enhancing the visibility of the European Union
- Scope of EU studies may vary so long as an EU angle is explored.

I. JEAN MONNET ACTIONS FOR HIGHER EDUCATION: AIMS

- To promote excellence in teaching and research in EU studies worldwide
- To foster dialogue between academic world and society ➔ policymakers, civil servants, civil society, representatives of different levels of education, the media
- To generate knowledge and insights in support of EU policy-making & strengthen the role of the EU within Europe the world
- To reach out to a wider public (beyond academia and specialised audiences) ➔ bringing EU knowledge closer to society
- To function as vector for public diplomacy towards partner/third countries ➔ promoting EU values and enhancing the visibility of what the EU stands for and what it wants to achieve.

I. JEAN MONNET ACTIONS IN THE FIELD OF HIGHER EDUCATION

MODULES: Short teaching programmes in EU studies taught at a HEI. May be mono or multidisciplinary and may call upon the academic input of several professors and experts. Minimum: 40 teaching hours programmes.

CHAIRS: Teaching posts with a specialisation in European Union studies for university professors. Minimum: 90 teaching hours taught by Chair holder. Held by one professor ONLY, but with possible team to support and enhance the activities of the Chair, including provision of additional teaching hours.

CENTRES OF EXCELLENCE: focal points of competence and knowledge on European Union subjects. They should seek to:

- * gather expertise and competences of high-level experts, aiming to develop synergies between various disciplines and resources in EU studies, and develop joint transnational activities.
- * widen outreach: to students from faculties not normally exposed to European Union issues, policy makers, civil servants, etc.

Jean Monnet Activities

Jean Monnet (JM) activities aim to develop EU studies worldwide. For over 25 years they have been supporting Modules, Chairs, and Centres of Excellence to promote excellence in teaching and research on the European integration process at higher education level. The programme also supports policy debate with the academic world through networks and a number of associations in the domain of EU studies.
